

Say Yes!

10 more years at Midwood

In 2012, the Charlotte Mecklenburg School board chose the Midwood International & Cultural Center from a broad field of competitors to revitalize the property at 1817 Central Avenue. Since that day, the organizations honored to call Midwood home have created a unique urban environment that not only supports and expands the mission of Charlotte Mecklenburg Schools — together, we change lives.

- ✓ Educating and supporting a diverse community of kids and adults to secure their success in Charlotte
- ✓ Building family economic strength and opportunity, and improving social mobility
- ✓ Stabilizing & reunifying families — creating ever-stronger environments where families thrive and students excel

Help us continue serving Charlotte from the heart of Plaza Midwood. Say Yes! to a ten-year lease — and to the difference we make together.

Making an impact at MICC

Thriving in their vibrant Plaza Midwood home, these organizations help fulfill the vision of Charlotte Mecklenburg Schools—

Grameen America
International House
The Light Factory
League of Women Voters
Japanese Association
Language Academy
History South
Charlotte Lit
Musicians
Painters
and more!

Together, the organizations that call MICC home make a difference in the lives of thousands of children, adults and families every week, all year 'round. Our organizations build the English fluency of newcomers and rising readers, provide over $53 million in microloans to transform family futures, offer financial literacy training to all ages and mentor small business owners, enrich the city's cultural life, and improve the social mobility and success of Charlotte's citizens.

*Together,
we're changing lives at MICC*

- Educating kids & newcomers
- Building economic & social mobility
- Strengthening & reunifying families
- Supporting success in Charlotte!
